Dear Patrick

I write to thank you for the recent seamless transfer of my Orange Mobile Phone account and continued excellent account management provided by you and the Consultancy Group in general.

Since you have taken over management of my account everything you promised you would do you have done, especially when dealing with the accounting problems I encountered at the beginning of the contract. The efficient manner in which you and The Consultancy Group dealt with this problem is a testament to the commitment and high level of service you offer.

I would without hesitation highly recommend you and The Consultancy Group to any prospective client as the service you offer cannot be faulted in anyway.

Regards,

Allan Jones
