Since being with The Consultancy Group we have had no problems regarding the mobiles.

We were approached by Michael Heath regarding our mobiles and we have had no problems since Michael Heath took over our account.

Since putting our trust in Michael Heath and The Consultancy Group our relationship has gone from strength to strength with them, whenever I have a problem or a question I can call him any time and it is solved with immediate effect.

We were again very impressed with speed at which the changes took place and how seamless the operation was in terms of disruption to our business.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Michael Heath and The Consultancy Group to for the service they provide, it is by far the best we have ever had.

Kind Regards
