The speed and efficiency of service from The Consultancy Group is superb.

As a relatively new company we were looking for an inexpensive, but effective mobile telephone package, to help with the operation of our business.

We contacted the Consultancy Group for advice and have not been disappointed.

Particular thanks are due to Barry Weston for his help. He was not only pleasant and polite, but had an excellent knowledge of all the goods and helped us a great deal.

We now have the tools we need to generate leads and enquiries to help our business grow.

I have already recommended your company to someone else and will happily do so in the future.

Kind regards
Carole Thomas
