12th June 2008.

I was approached in January 2008 and decided to let The Consultancy Group help me with the running of my Orange account.

I had been put on the wrong package by another dealer and my bills were costing me in excess of £425 and that was only for 7 handsets.

Now since Barry Weston, who is my dedicated account manager, and The Consultancy Group have taken over the running of my account I am now spending approximately £250 per month and I have increased my plan to 8 phones.

I constantly have a point of call and normally if I do have any problems they are resolved with 24 hours.

I am delighted to recommend Barry Weston at the Consultancy Group, we are very pleased with the way he has re structured our mobile communications and the savings will be greatly noticeable. He is currently saving us over 50% a month, Thank you.
